

mahogany regulator

Sold

REF: 28011

Description

A fine 19th century mahogany cased regulator of fine quality with unusual open sides to the whole case allowing viewing of the movement. This clock is of London quality but was made for Robinsons of Chesterfield probably for the board room, they made bandages and dressings.