

Railway dial clock with 8" dial and history

Sold

REF: 319781

Diameter: 25.4 cm (10")

Description

A 19th century mahogany dial clock of small size, these 8" dial clocks were used in signal boxes because of the compact size, with fusee movement. This example is from a signal box near York purchased from British Rail in 1976 for ~£41