

George III period mahogany double sided writing table.

Sold

REF: 291652

Description

An 18th century mahogany writing table standing on square back chamfered legs with original leather, and brass swan neck handles. This is double sided with the same layout on both sides. Good colour and patination