

A fine set of 19th century Holtzappel tools

Sold

Description

A fine complete set of wood turning chisels in the original fitted mahogany triptych case with ebony inlay, the chisels all marked Holtzappel and co which dates them after 1828.

The Holtzappel company produced wonderful lathes for ornamental turning which was a gentleman's hobby.

We would always be interested in looking at items of a similar nature.