

An 18th Century Culpeper Microscope By Adams London

Sold

REF: 376043

Height: 45.5 cm (17.9")

Description

A rare example of a Culpeper microscope by the leading family of instrument makers Adams, London in the original mahogany case and a good set of accessories including 4 out of the six objectives. The microscope retains the original lacquer and is typical of the quality work of Adams.

size is for the case