

A cased pair of box-lock pistols in superb condition

Sold

Description

A fine cased pair of 54 bore percussion pistols with blued octagonal barrels and engraved brass actions signed Reynolds, the walnut stocks with lion mask butt caps. The original fitted mahogany case with an engraved brass plaque and the owners name, The Honourable H. Vernon and a trophy of arms and a stardust.

Birmingham proof marks
overall length

We are always looking to acquire items of a similar description.