A pair of silver inlaid percussion pistols

Sold

Lincoln, UK
Tel: +44 (0)1522 750 341 or +44 (0)7831 183 511

REF: 376054

Description

A pair fine percussion pistols by Nixon of Newark. The ebonised stocks profusely inlaid with silver pique foliage and with a Lions mask butt cap, trigger guard and engraved escutcheon. The two stage browned barrels also engraved with the makers name and Birmingham proof marks. Now housed in an ebonised fitted case with blue lining

David Dixon worked in Newark from 1829 to 1864

Barrel length 4.5"

Lincoln, UK
Tel: +44 (0)1522 750 341 or +44 (0)7831 183 511