

A rifled barrel duelling pistol in fine condition

Sold

Description

A good example of a 19th century percussion 35 bore duelling pistol with a browned octagonal barrel engraved newcastle, the foliated engraved flat lock with safety catch engraved Davison, Newcastle Davison is record working 1827 to 1859
Birmingham proof marks
Overall length 16"
Barrel length 25cm

We will always be interested in purchasing items of a similar description.