

Fantasy armchair constructed with timber from Nelsons Foudroyant

Sold

REF: 110800

Description

A superb 19th century oak arm chair made by Goodhall and Lamb of Manchester from the salvaged timber from Nelsons ship the Foudroyant, the ship sank in 1897 and the timber was used for various items of furniture.