18th century ring dial by Gilbert, London

Sold

REF: 376114

Diameter: 15 cm (5.9")

Lincoln, UK
Tel: +44 (0)1522 750 341 or +44 (0)7831 183 511

Description

A good example of a 18th century brass ring dial by John Gilbert, London. The well engraved 6" dial is complete with sliding suspension ring and peep hole sight moving over calendar and zodiac signs.
John Gilbert was a mathematical instrument maker at Tower Hill, London and died in 1763A ring dial by Gilbert is in the Science Museum, London

Lincoln, UK
Tel: +44 (0)1522 750 341 or +44 (0)7831 183 511