

Cary sundial
Cary, London

Sold

REF: 55671

Diameter: 38.1 cm (15")

Description

An early 19th century horizontal sundial by Cary London and dated 1807. This 15" diameter bronze sundial is finely engraved and has a 16 point compass rose. It was made for Sir George Mackenzie's shooting lodge at Coul in Scotland and is set for latitude 57'33 . It stands on the original sand stone balaster shaped plinth.

WE WOULD BE PLEASED TO ACQUIRE ANY ITEMS OF A SIMILAR NATURE