

A fine silver mounted brass barrelled flintlock pistol

Sold

Description

A fine example of an 18th century silver mounted flintlock pistol by Brander, London. The brass barrel signed Brander, London, and with good London proof marks. The walnut stock is fully silver mounted with hallmarks for 1769, including the engraved trigger guard, a very good example of a trophy of arms, and a grotesque mask butt cap. overall length 34cm