

A pair of flintlock dueling pistols by Harcourt of Ipswich

Sold

REF: 376148

Description

A pair of late 18th/ early 19th century flintlock 25-bore dueling pistols with browned octagonal barrels. In good original condition throughout, the metal work finely engraved around the trigger guard and lock. The walnut stocks with good colour and a fine chequered grip.
In a well made modern fitted mahogany Circa 1795 to 1805