

A rare cased pair of Swiss target pistols

£6,400

REF: 376075

Description

A fine and complete set of 19th century percussion duelling pistols by Johan Muller, a Swiss gunsmith with retail outlets in France this pair sold through the Lyon shop.

The 24.5cm long rifled barrels numbered 1 & 2, the walnut stocks of good colour. The pistols are contained in the original fitted walnut case with all the accessories.

Overall length 42cm