

large decorated 17th century strong box or armada chest.

Sold

REF: 356071

Description

A superb example of a large strong box with the original decoration, the box includes the original keys for both the main lock and the small box on the inside. The lock plate with wonderful engraving including birds. The edge with lovely blued decoration that also includes either a makers mark or a date!

We would be pleased to acquire any items of a similar nature.